SUBJECT : Briefing Schedule for Admiral Raborn

REFERENCE: Action Memorandum No. A-452, dated 16 April 1965

1. In accordance with Mr. McCone's wishes, attached is a revised briefing schedule for Admiral Raborn. The DCI has indicated that he believes it preferable that the Deputy Director level of the Agency brief Admiral Raborn in depth prior to scheduling a briefing by each office. This has been accomplished in the attached schedule by arranging for either a morning or an afternoon to be available to each of the Directorates. Detailed office briefings can be arranged for a later date, but the Deputy Directors may wish to have their office chiefs present during their briefings.

2. Anticipating that unexpected changes may be necessitated in the briefing schedule, the previous instructions that [] in Admiral Raborn's office will be the focal point for such changes are still in effect. If changes are required, the cancelled briefings will be scheduled whenever there is a break in the Admiral's commitments so addressees are requested to keep their schedules flexible in order that the briefings may be fitted in as soon as possible.
